

Hello my lovely community,

I hope this finds you well and that you're having a wonderful fall season!

I have exciting news! I have been offered a year-long missionary internship at Camp Daniel! As most of you know, I have been volunteering at Camp Daniel for the last 10 years. Camp Daniel is a camp for individuals ages 8-80 with intellectual and physical disabilities located in Athelstane, Wisconsin. Their goal is to help campers grow spiritually, personally, and socially.

I first discovered camp a decade ago while I was a youth leader in the suburbs of Chicago, where I am originally from. Our youth group got the opportunity to go on a mission trip to serve as pit crew at camp. We got to camp and within the first few days, we fell in love with it. The atmosphere was so refreshing and it gave all of us a new outlook on disability. Even if it meant cleaning dishes and toilets, we witnessed God do amazing and greater things at this camp that I had never witnessed Him do before. A few of my students and I decided we wanted to volunteer again and again and eventually, all three of us had the amazing opportunity to intern a few years in a row in the summertime.

I have enjoyed seeing all of the beautiful things God has been doing in the lives of campers and counselors. From seeing the growth in personalities, to seeing people experience raw and genuine love, to seeing individuals know they are made for a purpose and find their purpose has been so incredible.

As for myself, camp has been a place where my faith has grown immensely over the years. My heart has experienced so much overwhelming love and has changed my family also, as one of my close family members has a disability. This has been a place that has never left my mind and I have wanted to work at for a long time. As a missionary, I will be living and working at Camp Daniel. They have programs year round for people of all ages. I will be working this year with their Special Olympics team in bowling and basketball. They have started a new group in Crivitz called Able Fellowship, specifically centered on sharing Jesus with the disabled community, which I am really excited for. I will also be leading groups who come to camp to volunteer or host their events here. Camp hosts 5 weeks of summer camp and other weekend getaways throughout the year. They also have a new program to help campers maximize their potential and grow as individuals called “Camper Max”. I am very honored to work at Camp Daniel and be alongside this beautiful community. This is such a wonderful opportunity and I believe God is leading me into this new season.

The missionary aspect of being a year-long Camp Daniel intern will be a significant part of my personal growth this year. At Camp Daniel, all staff serve as missionaries to people with disabilities. As part of this mission, I am seeking support from others—through prayer, encouragement, and financial contributions. To cover living expenses such as rent, food, and transportation, I need to raise $1,700 in monthly financial support. I humbly ask you to consider supporting me financially with a monthly gift of $10, $20, $50, or $100. Even if you can't contribute financially, I would greatly appreciate your prayers and encouragement throughout my internship. I will be sending monthly updates to keep you informed on the progress of my mission.

Again, I appreciate you all so much and I am always here, wherever I am, praying for you and supporting you too! Written below are the ways you can help support!

Sincerely and with all my love,

Rachel Grace Bornholdt

I'm grateful for the support of friends and family in my missionary journey. As you consider contributing, know that all Camp Daniel staff are missionaries to people with disabilities and raise their own financial support. My mission is to serve within the disability culture, and I'm seeking 39 committed individuals who can contribute $10, $20, $50, or $100 monthly. Your support will enable me to continue vital work at Camp Daniel. Thank you for your consideration in joining me on this meaningful path.
